June 27, 2017 TAGOR is presenting Elaine Quehlon – A Design Journey Richmond Cultural Centre (Performance Hall), 7700 Minoru Gate, Richmond, BC, 7pm Admission $5.00, Light refreshment

- Award-winning Canadian quilt artist, teacher and designer, Elaine Quehl offers a digital presentation and trunk show of her recent work. A good design primer, this public lecture shares what she has learned about composition and design over the years. Elaine is best known for colourful, nature-themed art quilts featuring luscious foliage, flowers and trees. Her work is a visual celebration of the drama unfolding in the natural world. She was the Canadian Quilter's Association Teacher of the Year in 2015. Presented by the Textile Arts Guild of Richmond (TAGOR) and the Richmond Arts Centre (RAC)
